Maverick (Phantom Air Combat Book 3)

Synopsis

Combat veteran Major Pablo Carmendez holds a grudge against his former adversaries. Diverting his armed Skyhawk fighter-bomber from a firepower demonstration he flies eastwards towards the Falkland Islands intent on revenge. What is his target and will he survive the defences alerted of his intentions? Crucially, will his plan wreck delicate negotiations between Britain and Argentina designed to mend strained relations? Are Government officials charged with protecting the islanders' interests worthy of that trust or are more sinister motives in play?Maverick is an aviation thriller set in the remote outpost in the South Atlantic Ocean that takes you into the cockpits of the Phantom fighters based on the Islands where you will experience the thrills of air combat as the conspiracy unfolds.

Customer Reviews

Gledhill takes you into air to air combat with all the bells and whistles that you can get. It's a great story about British airmen, their support troops and a rouge pilot help-bent on revenge, going back to the Falklands to make his point, but "Revenge is never sweet" and things go horribly wrong. Thanks for another great read.

This latest novel by Dave Gledhill sees the Phantom crew of his earlier novel, 'Defector', being deployed to the Falklands Islands, just a few years after the 1982 conflict with Argentina. An Argentinian pilot wants revenge for his fellow pilots who died there; there is a shady character at the service of the Governor of the Islands that is selling secrets to Argentina. Dave gives a nice overview of the service in the RAF Phantom squadron deployed there, and the air-air combat description is nice. Though a fiction, Dave's knowledge being a retired RAF navigator who flew in Phantoms over there gives the reader the impression that it could have happened. I thoroughly enjoyed reading it!
