There Will Always Be Rumors (Loving A Woman Is Like Winning The Lottery Book 2)

Synopsis

Lena and Parker make their move to Seattle where both of them have new jobs waiting for them. Little do they know, moving will be much more than heavy boxes and a new apartment. They spend the first few weeks of their new lives dealing with nasty rumors and judgements that circulate through their workplaces based on their sexuality. How will the girls handle having to come out of the closet, again?

Customer Reviews

The author has given another good story, with interesting elements. Coming out of the box and living a life they chose is going to be difficult for Lena and Parker. But, they have to face the society some day. Well written!

This piece was short, but the simple storyline was packed with realistic emotion. I loved how each woman faced their separate challenges alone, yet worked together as a team to support each other. It really brought home what its like for people to judge you just because you are different and how hurtful that can be.

S.B. Sheeran has written a cute story here about two women in love who move states and when they start their new jobs are faced with a few hiccups along the way. Both in their own way have to deal with the rumors that get spread through the workplace when there is something a little different about you and how they both deal with it is a happy little story, even if a little unbelievable still a cute tale. The only thing that made me take one star away is the editing of the spelling and grammar. If this had been done before publishing then it would have gotten 5 stars from me. A great read for something cute and quick.
