Customer Reviews

I see all his points and I love the jokes cause they are so funny. Only thing is that I wish that some of the graphics were a bit bigger so I could see the words. Otherwise one of the best books ever!

DISCLAIMER: I do not think the book is TERRIBLE. I could see someone younger enjoying it. I guess I'm just not the target audience. Now onto the negative review. Most of this book is about sympathizing with pixels. That in and of itself is already a problem. In chapter 6 the author lists things to take note of if you like Luigi a lot, such as:~ ~ Playing Luigi's Mansion a lot. (Not that weird.)~ ~ Dressing up like Luigi every single Halloween. (A little weird.)~ ~ FEELING THE URGE TO STEP ON TURTLES? (WHAT? NO REALLY, WHAT?) Kid 1 "What's your favorite Mario character?" Kid 2 "Luigi!" Kid 1 "Oh cool." Kid 2 "I like to step on turtles just like he does." Kid 1 "I'm going to walk away slowly now and hope that you don't gut me." He also says that Luigi is "badass" while showing a picture someone drew on 9gag of Luigi punching a bullet while stating that he's done being the little brother. I don't think it counts towards his "character" and "personality" if it's fan made. Just saying. But seriously, the book isn't that bad. There's a couple grammatical errors but other than that it's written pretty well. If you're under the age of 12 (or you are a BIG fan of Nintendo,) you would definitely find it funny. To anyone else though, it's pretty bad.

The jokes are kind of cheesy, the pictures in the interview are hard to see on Kindle, etc. Not the best in the world, but worth a try on Kindle Unlimited.
