Customer Reviews

The Taliban and Christian fundamentalists of today have nothing over the judges of New Haven colony in the religious zeal leading to savage inhumanity with brief bursts of wisdom and humanity.An interesting portrayal from historic records.

Fascinating stories, great research. All within the context of the 17th century & the evolving New Haven colony law. Some interesting parallels to current times.

Fascinating. A window into the distant past. Those who are disenchanted with the judicial system should read this book to acquire a sense of what used to be, and to appreciate how far we have come.

A funny book that gives us a different perspective on the early colonists. The stories are compelling but I just wish there was more follow up on what became of the litigants.

Very informative in regard to outdated Connecticut laws.
