Property A Contemporary Approach, 3rd (Interactive Casebook Series)

Synopsis

This casebook is designed to introduce property law to 21st century law students. It covers the standard property topics with a blend of familiar and modern cases selected to appeal to today's students. It also includes sections on intellectual property and environmental law. As with other books in the Interactive Casebook series, the accompanying electronic version allows students immediate access to the full text of cited cases, statutes, articles, and other materials in the Westlaw database. In addition, the electronic version includes over 200 photographs, maps, diagrams, original documents, and audio clips that help students understand the case materials, together with more than 300 multiple choice questions and answers so that students can assess their progress. Customer Reviews

Who can use this review? A student reading it does not choose his casebook! This has been the best packaged book I've had as a 1L. Integrates to online material, ecopy free, and well balanced between cases, notes, and amplifying call out boxes.

The book itself is fine but the rental option is a joke. I paid about 90% of the overall price (I had to renew because Property II uses the same book) and it doesn't even come with an e-book code. This makes sense since the first owner will have already redeemed it. Still sucks that I'm spending all this money and I don't get the benefit of the stuff in the e-book (quizzes, illustrations, etc.).

I spent an extra $80 for a new book so I could use the online code for access to West Academic's online practice exams/guidance/etc. Code did not work due to their "system being down" for nine days now. Still hoping I can use my code at some point.
