The 2015 Beckett Almanac of Baseball Cards and Collectibles No. 20 is broken down into three sections: Major League Baseball, Minors/Draft Picks, and Vintage Minor League. The almanac has the same number of pages like No. 19 - 1344 pages. The printing is still small and hard to see sometimes. Gone in this book are the price listings for the All American Girl Professional Baseball League baseball cards. Overall it is still a good price guide. On the cover of the almanac is Bryce Harper. The 2015 Beckett Almanac of Baseball Cards and Collectibles No. 20 gets an AAA+++.

Absolutely a great book and one every collector should have... but you have another option. Beckett's website offers pricing guides that are updated daily and feature sets you won't even find in this almanac, not to mention figures and other sports' cards. While it may cost more monthly, it might be worth it to some to have a constantly-updated online almanac instead of this heavy beast of a book.

Kind of disappointed that several of my older collections aren't in this annual anymore, like they have been in the past. Still, best bang for the buck on the collections from the past 30 years.

The package arrived in great shape and I am extremely happy with the content of the item.
Everything I hoped for.

Great addition to any baseball collection.
