Customer Reviews

I enjoy reading BDSM and Menage storylines. Usually, you'll find the dominant with 2 subs. It was clear, from the start that Ford was going to be dominant but, unfortunately, I was a little confused with Come When Called and wouldn't call it true BDSM but a fantasy come to life. I would call Ford a spoiled brat that got what he wanted, when he wanted, how he wanted and from who he wanted with no heart. Evie wanted to be independent and make her own way but Ford made her an offer that she thought would keep her safe and make the money she needs to give her the total independence that she craves. Charley was my favorite. He came off as aloof and jealous and turned out to be the catalyst that brought everyone together. The sex, when all three were together, was scorching but, alone, it was for Ford's pleasure and turn-ons. The storyline had a lot of wonderful possibilities but fell a little short, for me. I am not saying that it wasn't an enjoyable story but it actually left me wanting in several areas. First and foremost was the BDSM aspect. It seemed to be more of a Catch-22 where there was no negotiating for the sex or punishment when he wanted, how he wanted, with who he wanted and, if she didn't do as told, she would be punished. That is, in no way, BDSM. Second was his treatment of both Evie and Charley knowing, deep down, how both of them felt about him. Third was Evie's ex-boyfriend and his role in the story. I felt like he was thrown in for shock purposes and had no real reason to be showing up when he did. Granted, he was the reason she was insecure in her life but he could have been taken care of early in the storyline. The things he did just didn't fit in with the story and felt that he showed up when he did as an afterthought.
