Customer Reviews

We took a trip to Portugal in the past year and simply loved the food that we ate while there. One of the things that we enjoyed the most was their desserts and were anxious to have some more of those delightful foods at home. Author Rui Alberto has made it possible for us to create some of these wonderful treats in the comfort of our home with her great book. These 21 recipes are easy to follow and are all very well explained. We love the Maladasas and the Leite Cream and are planning to try the Sonhos next. Great recipe book.

I am a big fan of international cuisine and I also enjoy trying out new things when it comes to cooking, Portuguese cuisine was an area I have never explored in the kitchen and I thought starting off with some tasty deserts would be the perfect start. I have found within this book a collection of tasty and quick recipes, easy to cook and delicious to eat. A recipe collection for anyone who enjoys new experiences when cooking.
