This book guides on how to make effective videos. There are many more examples of how we should structure the main focus of our video, but the core idea is for us to get to the point and make sure the viewer can actually spot your talent or skill. Itâ™s perfectly fine to build up to your swansong, but make sure the viewers are sucked in by the build-up and make sure they know that what theyâ™re watching right then is indeed building up to that killer-blow.

I've always been curious as to how these youtube stars got thousands and millions subscribers and this book summarized it all. It's a quick overview of how to achieve fame on youtube and it made a lot of sense. Surely, these youtube sensations didn't acquire the fame in an instant and that's what exactly this book tells about.
