Customer Reviews

Most of these recipes are pretty true to their Mexican roots, using classic Mexican chiles, herbs and seasonings matched with a wide variety of protein, vegetable and grain combinations. Sadly, there are no links to the recipes, so you'll want to bookmark any you find interesting, but that's a minor quibble in a 99 cent book. Do your tastebuds a favor and where feta is indicated use Cotija cheese instead, except for the Greek tacos, of course. Where mayo or sour cream is used, buy some Mexican Crema. Both of these items are inexpensive and can normally be found right next to the Queso Fresco in the dairy section at Walmart. And don't waste your money on ready-made hard shells. They're an insult to a good taco. Their inclusion in the cover art made me cringe and I almost passed on the book despite it's low price. I'm glad I didn't.

What's not to like about tacos. You can jazz them up anyway you want and they never get boring.

Super fantastic taco recipes the chicken taco is one really great taco.
