How To Value & Sell Your Records On EBay

Synopsis

If you have a stack of old vinyl records in your attic and have no idea if they are worth anything but would like to make some room and earn some money into the bargain then this book will guide you through the process. It explains how to find out a records value and how sought after it may be. How to grade a record, what to look for and how to describe it in an advert is explained. Advice on how to wrap a record safely for posting is also given. This guide should help you identify which records you may have that are worth any money and what price you may expect to obtain. Information is also given on how to wrap a record and some customer service tips are also given.
