Angel Park

Synopsis

Angel Park, the debut poetry collection by Roberto F. Santiago, explores the intersections of identity (familial, gender, sexual, racial, ethnic, spiritual, class, and linguistic) vis-à-vis the vehicles of travel, or motion from the familiar to the new, the loss of innocence that occurs within the process of maturation.

Customer Reviews

A beautiful collection of poetry. Vivid, gritty and free. I single out a dozen that I love, but my favorite is "Self Portrait of A Boy Kicked Out of His House".
